

Boundary Definition of the “Pentacrest Mile”

Commencing at the intersection of Dubuque Street and Brown Street the line runs eastward along Brown Street to its intersection with Governor Street. The line continues southward along Governor Street to Washington Street where it turns eastward to intersect with Summit Street. Then, southward down Summit Street to Kirkwood Street, the line turns eastward along Kirkwood until Howell Street. South on Howell to Girty Avenue where it proceeds westward to Lukirk Street. South on Lukirk to Highland Avenue, west for a short distance to Crescent Street from where it runs south to its termination. Then, Continuing on to intersect with State Highway Six.

From State Highway Six, the line proceeds westward along Highway Six to the intersection of Highway Six and State Highway One. Then, along Highway One, proceeding westward to Sunset Street. Running generally northward along Sunset Street, the line continues northward at the end of Sunset Street at Melrose Avenue. The line continues across the Iowa Interstate Railroad to join up with Hawkins Drive. From the intersection of Hawkins Drive and State Highway Six the line runs north by northeasterly along Rocky Shore Road and the Iowa River.

The line continues along the Iowa River around City Park to the intersection of the Iowa River and Rocky Shore Road. The line runs easterly down Rocky Shore Road to intersect with Dubuque Street, then running south to intersect with the commencement point at the intersection of Dubuque Street and Brown Street.